

Have some musical fun

WHAT better way to evoke Mother's Day cheer than attending the funniest '80s wedding in town?

Based on the 1998 hit movie starring Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore, Williamstown Musical Theatre Company's production of The Wedding Singer casts 29 exuberant and talented performers from all corners of Melbourne.

Set in 1985 New Jersey, Turanga Merito (Simba, Disney's Lion King) plays rock star wannabe Robbie Hart, who is the life of every party until his fiancée leaves him at the altar at his own wedding.

Devastated, the wedding singer becomes a newlywed's worst nightmare as he makes every wedding as disastrous as his own.

Things take a turn when he meets the winsome waitress Julia who is about to be married to a Wall Street shark.

Unless Robbie can pull off the performance of a decade, the girl of his dreams will be gone forever.

The Wedding Singer is a must see musical providing a Pandora's box of sound, light, colour and '80s costume to constitute a full nights entertainment.

Performance dates are as following: Friday 2 May 8pm (black tie event), 3 May 8pm, 4 May 2pm, 9 May 8pm, 10 May 8pm, 11 May 2pm, 15 May 8pm, 16 May 8pm, 17 May 8pm. Tickets for adults are $30 with discounts for concessions and group bookings.

Don't miss out on the Mother's Day special – a flat rate of $27.

Tickets are available by calling 1300 881 545 or by visiting www.wmtc.org.au.

Cheer ... The talented cast in The Wedding Singer put on a rollicking performance.
