

Turn of wild one to shout

HEARD the whispers about the Williamstown premiere of the musical SHOUT!?

Williamstown Musical Theatre Company is the first Victorian amateur musical company to present the legend of the 'Wild One'.

SHOUT! celebrates the history of rock 'n' roll in Australia through the story of Johnny O'Keefe.

It has a cast of 29 people from all over Melbourne, with 70 involved in the production.

Williamstown resident Simone Clark-Speakman, who is part of the chorus, described the show as a very big deal.

"There are people who have come from Mount Waverley to be part of it.

"It's a big deal and has attracted a wide range of talent."

The show, at the Williamstown Mechanics Institute, corner of Melbourne Road and Electra Street, runs from October 27 until November 18. Book: 1300 881 545.

Wild times: SHOUT! cast members Rob Goldsmith, Simone Clark-Speakman and Patt Ryan get into the rock 'n' roll mood.
